BENNETT AND SARAH
SWEAT LINDSAY

Bennett Lindsay was born October 23, 1882 at Center Creek, the seventh child of James and Agnes Watson Lindsay. He married Sarah Elizabeth Sweat on Nov. 23, 1905 at Center, and the marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple. She was born Nov. 15, 1885 at Center, the daughter of Louis and Elizabeth Broadhead Sweat.

During his early life, Bennett worked with his father in farming and the sheep business, but did not join the LDS Church. After he met Sarah, he joined the Church and then had their marriage solemnized in the Temple. Much of his life after this was spent in active Church work. Six years after his marriage he received a mission call, and though it was difficult to leave his wife and three small youngsters alone at home, his faith never wavered and he served two years in the Central States Mission. Following his mission he was called to serve as a member of the Center Ward bishopric and then in 1917 began a period of service as Bishop for 22 years.

Two years after his marriage, Bennett had saved enough money and materials to build a home for his family just east of his father's property in Center. He and his wife worked hard to make a lovely home and provide for their family. He joined with the father and brother in the sheep business, and was often required to be away from home, leaving his wife to care for their 11 children.

During his service as bishop a new chapel was erected in Center, and also during this time culinary water and electric lights were installed in the community. He spent much of his time helping these projects move along. Much sacrifice was also required to support three of their children on missions for the Church.

Sarah was also active in Church work, serving as an officer and teacher in the auxiliary organizations. She also was president of the PTA and was named Wasatch County Mother of the Year in 1959.

Bennett served as a member of the school board, as a director of the Lake Creek Irrigation Company, a member of the Soil Conservation Committee, was president of the County Farm Bureau and a board member of the Farm Home Administration.

Their eleven children include Ethel who married Clyde Broadbent and is the mother of five children: Louie, deceased, a twin who married Grant Averett and had four children: Louis, deceased, twin of Louie, married Ellen Christensen and had one son, Hazel, who married J. Clyde Howe and has seven children: Mabel who married Kenneth L. Anderson and has five children; Alice, a twin, who married Phillip Moon and has seven children; Allen, twin of Alice, who was killed in Germany during World War II; Wrex who married Ada Sabey and has four children: Doris who married Fay Parker and has six children; Robert, a twin, who married Isabell Daugherty Morgan and has two children and Bennett, twin of Robert, who married Kathleen Kohler and has five children.

lodge at Tooele, Utah, the Royal Arch Chapter and Knights Templar Commandery at Price and the Consistory bodies. In a business way he has invested in mining enterprises, has some mining interests in Utah and is interested in oil developments in Wyoming. Doctor Fahrning was one of the organizers of the Helper Ball Club.

He married, July 24, 1913, Miss Selma Lasson, of Fairview, Utah. They have two children, Bill, born in 1914, and Sue, born in 1920.

RALPH F. NILSSON, who is county superintendent of schools for Wasatch County, with executive headquarters at Heber, the county seat, is another of the native sons of Utah who are here rendering loyal and constructive service in the maintaining and advancing of the well ordered educational system of the state, and his personal advancement has been won through ability and efficiency.

Mr. Nilsson was born at Monroe, Sevier County, Utah, May 12, 1883, and is a son of Jeppa and Susan (Swain) Nilsson. Jeppa Nilsson gained pioneer prestige in Utah, where he was one of the early settlers at Fort Ephriam and was, in 1866, notably active as a member of the United Order. He was a pioneer in farm enterprise in the vicinity of Monroe, Sevier County, where he established residence in 1882, and he was one of the early and leading merchants at Monroe, where likewise he was influential in the local civic and business affairs.

Ralph F. Nilsson received the advantages of the public schools of Monroe and thereafter continued his studies in Brigham Young University, at Provo, until he received therefrom the degree of Bachelor of Arts, as a member of the class of 1918. In 1900 he became associated with mining operations in the Tintic district of Juab County, his educational work having been resumed in 1914, when he became a student in Brigham Young University, and after being graduated in that institution, in 1918, he returned to the mines. In 1920 he became principal of the Latter Day Saints Seminary at Heber, and his service in this capacity continued three years. Since 1924 he has been giving most effective administration as superintendent of the public schools of the Wasatch County School District. He is one of the progressive and resourceful figures in educational work in this section of the state, is an enthusiast in his profession and has membership in the Utah Education Association and the National Education Association, also the Superintendent's Department of the National Association.

As a zealous member of the Church of Latter Day Saints Mr. Nilsson has given service as superintendent and teacher in the Sunday School, was second and first counsellor in the bishopric in the Knightville Ward of the Nebo Stake during the period of 1908-11, and from the latter year until 1914. In the period of 1915-17 he was Sunday School superintendent of the Fourth Ward, Provo, and in 1917-18 he was president of the Mutual Improvement Association of Provo, Fourth Ward. Mr. Nilsson likewise takes lively interest in civic affairs, and in 1927 he was elected a member of the City Council of Heber, in which he served one term, of two years.

Ralph F. Nilsson

In his home city of Heber he has been active and influential as a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and at the present time is chairman of the educational committee of the Heber Lion's Club.

December 23, 1903, recorded the marriage of Mr. Nilsson to Miss Mary R. Tuft, of Monroe, Sevier County, and her death occurred February 6, 1920, she being survived by six children: Paul, Clifford, Maud, Iva, Lola and Ada.

The second marriage of Mr. Nilsson was solemnized January 26, 1923, when Miss Mina Bond, of Heber, became his wife. Lucille, elder of the two children of this union, is deceased, and the younger daughter is Ruth.

Brother Pledger

Dear Students,

Out of all of the Seminaries I've had the opportunity of teaching full time at Heber is definitely the finest. We have our challenges here in our beautiful valley yet I am confident that during the next few years our priesthood leaders will guide us through these challenging times.

I also feel confident that the great youth of this valley will rise to meet with their divine destiny.

Sincerely,

Joe Pledger
